

2018 -
BEING WHAT I MEAN.

divine intervention

Markus Brunetti has spent the past decade traveling Europe to turn landmark churches into transporting works of art.

© MARKUS BRUNETTI. COURTESY YOSHI MILO GALLERY, NEW YORK

DIVINE INTERVENTION

Sometimes tragedy comes into our life so we might see the opportunity to stop failing.

The very worst things, circumstances, and situations often call our attention to much more serious matters, and regulates our concerns to give attention to the SOURCE of our struggling concerns. We seem to forget that the Father does not have to create a condition to get our undivided attention, but HE CAN and often uses the situations that we create for ourselves. Yes - HE, the Creator, made us wherever we are, when we are - AVAILABLE.

Often our hard-times seem to linger for seasons. We paw, doubt, and give-up over, and over again - but at some point we release, we let-go of the horrors that we thought were holding on to us. As we begin to free-fall, somehow our perspectives on our most immediate priorities CHANGE. It is so odd that trials, tribulations, struggles and strife cause us to BE BETTER TOWARDS OUR BEST. Everyone has a testimony of how they've overcome. But there remains a dying resistance that is created by "WHAT PEOPLE THINK" complexes that weighs heavy on the backs of our souls.

2.

This is a burden that does not belong to us. We must deliver all our cares, doubts and unbelief to the Throne of Our Father and be willing to change our own lives by practicing the BEST UNDERSTANDING THAT WE HAVE.

More important is our choice to remain forward in our faces about our life, and be willing to reach out and in. We must reach out to the hearts and minds of those that we allow to surround us. We must reach out with our calls for HELP, and not be ashamed to reach out again and again until we are connecting with answers, solutions, and processes that will inspire our pain to rest. But there is more.

The IN-REACH. We do not have alternatives when we are not willing to fail, loose, and sleep. The further we reach IN, the more we will become awake. How will others ever consider us, until we CONSIDER ourselves. Strength, courage, great power, and confidence are located at the core of who we are, and transferred through Divine relationships because of WHO'S WE ARE.

Far left: Cologne Cathedral, in Cologne, Germany.

Center: Saint Alexi Memorial Church, in Leipzig, Germany.

Above: Piazzola sul Brenta Cathedral, in Padua, Italy.

3.

We are living in a time where ONLY the best will be recognized. Only the BEST will survive and overcome. And it is a DIVINE INTERVENTION and mandate that we win, because each of us is unique, original and irreplaceable throughout the universe. There is an abundance of destiny for each of us to do, and it is assigned to our DNA.

We can easily watch the news and all kinds of social media reports, and see the thousands of people who every day, decide to GIVE-UP. But I have come to recognize that the simple fact that the Creator authorized our birth, is in and of itself, DIVINE INTERVENTION. But what the Creator has done is expecting you and I to go forward, moment-by-moment, doing BETTER. Oh there will be millions of demons around to remind you of the PAST. But we can do like our Ancient African Ancestors and SANKOFA! We can remember ALL the brokenness of our past, and the falls, and traumatic failures; and we must remember them in DETAIL. WHY?

So that we can sift through the mountains of ignorance and bring forward and present THE HILLS OF WISDOM and application.

4.

We must be willing, and trusting in our relationship with our Creator to WARRIOR BACK to our past and present understanding. We cannot continue to spin our wheels falling, or forgetting. The blessing is in NAKUMBUKA (I REMEMBER)

The Blessing, benefit, and application are exercised when we intentionally look over the battlefield of our past and "SEE HOW" we much more differently DO NOW. We often repeat the errors because we continue to allow the common familiarity of what we are used to, block us from APPROPRIATE INVESTIGATION into the purpose of doing BETTER by understanding that it means DOING DIFFERENT.

We must own it! We must own our greatness and our acts of past weakness. We must own it! - our irresponsible choices, our people pleasing, our fear of doing alone, and being alone, WE MUST OWN "ALL" that we are in our past and present; but own it with profound understanding and ACCURATE ACCESS TO THE WHOLE OF WHAT WE ARE AS AN INDIVIDUAL WILL BE REQUIRED TO MANIFEST AND DEMONSTRATE THE BEST THAT I AM, OR WE ARE - NOW

5.

This is a description of elements that reveal the presence of

DIVINE INTERVENTION !

✓ Am
an African Classic

✓ Gay Robinson
NAKUMBUKA !