Mentor - Advise, learn to transform all lives for the betterment of people.

my fellow Bloggers, my mission is to transform lives with the power of people,
If we acknowledge our need of each other, we can all have a profound purpose in life, together we can fix each other's problems. Separately we have limited abilities, resources and understanding together we can devise a plan to help anyone's problems. We've all experienced times when our backs are to the wall, our problem seem to have no solution, we don't know what to do, but if we all worked together we can get advise, mentorship, referrals, assistance, help.
Everybody has a talent, or a resource they can lend to another in need.

The marchers, peaceful occupy wall street, on the college campus have a great idea, but they need more of a plan.
Lets go to the polls, vote the authoritative figures out of office,

It is time we hold people accountable for victimizing people, taking advantage of children,, we have to hold the ones who sit idly by, allow kids to be victimized.

The Penn State scandal, have shown us we can no longer give the people in authoritative positions to be considered above reproach to wrong doing, law breaking, conspiring to break state, federal laws, constitutions.

I know how those victimized kids feel, when an authoritative person has such a high, regal status, they often know, tell you as a child "n one will believe you, because of who I am, the money he, she has.

I offer deep heart felt prayer for the victims of the alledged Penn State scandal.

My own past has an identical situation as Penn State. I too, was victimized by an authoritative figure, when I was under the age of ten. I still have nightmares.

I too could not come forward because of the status of the person.

My case now is about me being sexually assaulted by a upright figure in the community of Cottage Grove Wisconsin, where I was confined, was threatened by the person holding, attacking me with a dangerous weapon, his K(9) german sheppard dog.

Because I had a prior, was a minority, indigent, etc, I was wrongly convicted, in addition the perpetrator was portrayed as an upright citizen by the state, judge,

.. I need a referal to a pro bono lawyer, or college that will their law clerks to look at my case. I will help others in / I can Lookingforward to hearing from you have a goodday
