

"Time"

Time waits for no man.

So we must come up with a plan.

Time is shared with the one you love,
and, it is precious as a Dove.

Time does come with age,

but, will it leave us in a state of rage?

Time will heal our broken hearts.

When mankind tear it apart,

Time is going to be set.

When you place a bet.

Time like this want last.

Someday it will be a thing of our past.
