

My Birthday Wish List 3/9/2013

My birthday is approaching and I'm so relieved that this year should be my last year in prison. It has been such a long time coming (almost 11 years) but I'm grateful I'm still sane and healthy. This year I just want to retain and all information I can to help me grow and be prepared for this vast and diverse world I'll be entering. If possible please send me books and magazines for my birthday.
