1) For me, the concept of friendship ended once I became a vampire of Chi-Town streets.

More Family Than Friend

2) So, I leave that Naivete for youthful thinking and baby daydreaming.

More Family Than Friend

3) In times of need, they say the only ones you can really depend on is those who share your blood. This too, once tested, is a relative-relativity myth. Fam is not all that, "come all, help all" divine gift.

More Family Than Friend

4) In my time of need you have extended a hand to me larger & firmer than those whom claimed they love me. You have cried & stressed over my safety and health when no one else.

More Family Than Friend

5) Through pain & suffering, I have earned and learned the knowledge and wisdom to distinguish between what's family and friend.

More Family Than Friend

6) So if you ever need me, like I need & needed! You! Know that I'll be here! Because for me, you're more family than friend.

With Love,

Ras Uhuru
