"Sometimes a lover's gift is even sweeter when he cannot be there to offer it in person." - Leronica Terquist (from 'Dune: The Machine Crusade' by Brian Herbert + Kevin J. Anderson)

Dear Readers,

02/25/14

Howdy! Thanks to all of you who read my blog + who support me with your comments!

Please forgive me if I repeat something I've previously mentioned. I need to keep a log of what I write about + when. Sorry!

I think I mentioned that I received a letter out of the blue from a former "look up." Well, he's written back + I hope he continues. I'm really surprised - shocked even - that this guy took the time to look me up + write me after all this time. I just can't imagine someone doing that for me - especially after all the former "best friends" who intentionally turned their backs on me.

I also think I mentioned the so-called "Anger" who totally shit on me. He has sent messages via my cellie that he regrets what happened + I told him that if he felt that way he needed to man up + tell me himself + try to work things out. So far he hasn't.

I finally got a card last week from my "best friend" Pam who stopped emailing me on Dec. 9. She did the ~~the~~ same thing last Fall + blew me off for 2 1/2 months without a word. I sent her an email after I got her card + chewed her out - it sucks being treated like this - and she hasn't responded.

Pam wrote that she didn't sell one thing that I sent her that I had crocheted. I'm sure she's not lying, but I find that hard to believe. The one time she took things to a store, about 5 years ago, I made $300.

Since then my skills have greatly improved, so I'm sure she's just not trying, still. I bought some photo tickets so I can post pictures of some of my work.

I went to sick call at medical about a lump in my chest. It has since at least doubled in size & is clearly visible. Yet, I still haven't been seen by anyone. My cellie ran out of some regular prescriptions that he needs for health issues & instead of automatically renewing them and/or scheduling him to be seen by someone, they're telling him that he needs to go to sick call - where he'll be charged $2 - because he's not getting the medical attention he needs. It's ridiculous.

Also on the medical front, there's a bug going around (flu?) & everyone is getting sick. Illnesses spread easily in here. My cellie felt sick & I'm starting to get a sore throat. Fikes!

My former friend "Dawn" went to the sex offender's unit a couple weeks ago to go to court to see if he'll be released or committed. Dawn uses people & will fuck over anyone with no regard, as I learned. Dawn was telling 2 different guys that he was going to live with them when he got out so they both would send him money, which they did based on this lie. Well, I knew one of the guys 'cause he used to be here before he was released. I finally got his address & let him know what was going on, & I hear that Dawn has been cut off. He told someone here & made me out to be the bad guy & he the victim, when he's lying to someone & using them for money. I don't think so. Payback is a bitch & so am I.

Love & Blessings,
