25 June 14

I do appreciate your lengthy June blogs to me. You give me much to ponder... but when I see you say: "I was just sitting here saying 'I cannot be the only one'...", believe you me bro, you're not.

Let me tell you though; the imploding lake of fire, the hidden slave contracts, the maritime jurisprudence, Black's Law Mysteries, 9-11, Pearl Harbor - Desert Storm catalysts, Talking Serpents, Burning Bush, Jesus tempted murder, the Sun, Amun Ra... Yes bro, I know — but I've long ago stopped chewing on all that rancid meat.

Here ya go, isn't it written "The wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable" (James 3:17)? So wouldn't this be a good plumb-line to gauge how true our thoughts are lined up with eternal Truth? Speculative conjectures seem somehow prone to rancidity and hard to digest. Trust me, I know this by experience.

Out of the abundance of the heart, ya know? Who wants heart burn?! It's too bad that I couldn't hear my wife at the time, in her child-like faith, try to convince me of the merit of Phillipians 4:8 as I ranted on my Ezekiel 33 tirades — but again: Out of the abundance of the heart, I couldn't even imagine what she seen through her pollyannish spectacles.

Until I finally accepted that I am not the legitimate envoy of The Most High ALMIGHTY, responsible to "correct" everything that I deem wrong. Too bad it took me being exiled in order to engage in the most ennobling Royal Battle of Self vs. self — the True Hero's Quest! A striving to the Higher Self, the best that I can be.

Surely the world still groaneth (Rom. 8:22), with all sorts of disharmony... or Dark Light, you might say — but trust this bro; if each of us would restore harmony in our own sphere of influence, beginning with our Self, then the word Utopia comes to mind. Something CAN be done, and it begins with self-restoration. Again, I know this by experience.

Listen, look up the word Demagogue, and then avoid them like the plague they strive to promote. Let your eye be singly upon the praiseworthy things. They DO exist! How does that Serenity Prayer go? God grant us the serenity to accept the things we cannot change, Courage to change the things we can, and Wisdom to know the difference? Yea for every thousand hacking at the leaves of evil, there is one striking at the root.

Maybe I'm being brainwashed in here at these Self-Awareness and Recovery groups, but I'm here to tell you it's the same world out there but I see it so differently now. I'm attaching the most recent "ataboy" I've received for the world to see. Killin' time isn't killin' me! In fact, would you like to know what I found behind the Cherub's with the flaming sword guarding the Tree. A stupid riddle there:

Can ye answer this?

- 1) This word has seven letters ...
- 2) Preceded God ...
- 3) Greater than God ...
- 4) More evil than the Devil ...
- 5) All poor people have it ...
- 6) Wealthy people need it ...
- 7) If you eat it - you will die.

Oh! And on the other side, the Cherub's carved into the tree:

DID YA KNOW?

- 1) Psalm 118 is the middle chapter of the entire Bible?
- 2) Before Ps 118, Ps 117 is the shortest chapter of the Bible?
- 3) After Ps 118, Ps 119 is the longest chapter of the Bible?
- 4) That there are 594 chapters each before and following Ps 118?
- 5) That if you add-up all the chapters except Ps 118, you get a total $594 + 594 = \dots$ of 1188 chapters?
- 6) Incidentally, 1188 - or Ps 118:8 also happens to be the middle verse of the entire Bible?
(This central verse should have a fairly important message, don't you think?)

Yessir, it does get awefully boring in eternity, it does.

Inmate GOEHLER has successfully completed a 18-session course in emotional awareness/emotional healing based on the book, "Houses of Healing: A Prisoner's Guide to Inner Power and Freedom" by Robin Casarjian. The objective of this course is to promote self-esteem, foster emotional growth and healing, encourage responsibility, healing relationships, managing stress, and learning accountability for oneself and towards others. This course has been highly successful nationwide in giving prisoners the opportunity to participate in the healing process that is fundamental to any comprehensive rehabilitation program aimed at effecting genuine and lasting change. As participation in the abovementioned course is voluntary, inmate GOEHLER is to be commended for his willingness and effort to increase his awareness/recovery.

NAME AND NUMBER: GOEHLER, WILLIAM K77832 HOUSING: A01-124L

The above named inmate has participated in my (SEW) Self Exploration through Writing group from 9-25-13 through 2-26-14. The topic the group focused on during this time period was a workshop on "Criminal Thinking Therapy". He participated in this workshop that focused on Objects to Possess, Failure to Consider Injury, Lack of Interest in Responsible Performance, Ownership Attitude, Views Self as a Good Person, I Can't Attitude, Power Thrust, Uniqueness, Suggestibility, Failure to Put Oneself in Another's Position, Sentimentality, Anger, and Criminal Pride. The workshop showed that participants got a lot of good information from the study on recognizing things they did in their lives that were wrong and led them down a road of destruction and ultimately to prison and what they could have done differently in their lives to lead them down a positive path. It taught them to really look into their own lives and find out what character defects and faults led them to do these bad things and make these wrong decisions that led them to prison. I believe this workshop will help the participants learn how to deal with their character defects in a more productive and positive way in their future and make right choices to help them become productive members of society.
