

MESSAGE #2

Finally, made it back!!! Had a lot on my plate to clear: One, fighting & researching, ways to dismantle this corporate(JPay)/prison collusion to expand their profiteering off prisoners & their families. (At the moment, in Sacramento, appealing this system, to the system. An absurd process, but one must play this frivolous 'game' in order to take this cause to the courts.)

In the midst of this, the prison decided to downsize our property, i.e., study, religious & legal materials. The latter, naturally, hinders our ability to fight our cases, & issues like collusions w/corporations, which just may be the incentive behind this action. As a result, I took up implementing a righteous Buddhist program, to protect our Buddhist materials, & such. On Mayday, had a productive meeting with the Rabbi on this looks as if we may be able to work out something agreeable. :)

If that wasn't enough, there's a flu-bug flying around, in which, I was bitten by... TWICE!!! Besides all of this, there's still my main task: fighting an unjust conviction. With that, a quick post. ..
