Hello Meaganbrown2524, Hopefully by now you've found our PAPCO thing, however, it's all good because the transcriptions you are doing so far, are so valuable to the overall project.

It takes us longer to receive transcriptions in the mail, so I haven't seen how well you've done with My Chicken Scratch, I still can't read Frank's writing, so, thanks.

I'm so glad you said that you're "extremely bored" at your job, because it frees you up to spend more time with us :) Your comments are an added value for us because we intend to generate streaming conversations about our forthcoming post, so please stay at us, grow with us, and thank you for just being bored on the job :) Valuing your transcriptions and comments,
-Tyzst@papco
