Dear Readers,

Howdy! I hope everyone is well & happy.

I finally have a few crocheted items on the internet. I sent them to a friend who posted them. I only have 3 items up right now as a "test run." There are 2 hats & 1 purse. If anyone is interested, they can be found at [HTTP://LOLLIS TRINKETS TOO. ETSY.COM](http://LOLLIS TRINKETS TOO. ETSY.COM).

I was told that you have to put in keywords to look them up. There's a skull hat, a spider hat, and a small burgundy purse. I hope you can find them.

So... I got out of the Hole (Segregation) after a month. It sucked. At first I was put in a cell with a black guy who was pretty laid back so it wasn't too bad. Someone else was in my cell & he was waiting to move back into his old cell (long story) & that took about a month before we could make that happen. Fortunately it finally worked out & I am back in my old cell.

As usual, I lost some of my property. The thing that still bothers me the most is my Quote Book. I had a composition notebook which I'd kept for 10 years with quotes that I'd collected since 2004. The asshole C.O. just threw it out. I still can't believe it.

If any of you have read my blog for a while, you'll know that I put a quote at the beginning of each blog. I also put them in birthday cards + such that I send to people. Now they're all gone. Obviously I'm starting all over again, but I'm really going to miss losing that notebook.

I've had a few more problems lately too. I lost 2 typing customers while I was in the Hole. Plus, I've gotten 2 more "shots" (incident reports) since then. One for an unauthorized item and one for letting someone use my email. D'eat. The second one was just last week + I still haven't had my hearing yet. If it goes badly, I could end up back in the Hole again.

So, things aren't going that great for me right now. I'm trying to just let things slide + not take it too hard. There's not much else I can do.

Until next time...

Love + Blessings,
