i love u so much n can't wait 4 the day when i can hug u n not let go. also have storys i want 2 tell u in person so i can watch u giggle n smile or whatever . also just want 2 b a listening ear n help u navigate thru life. again i can just say pray bout everything. dont make decisions when ur mad. stay tru 2 ur principles though that's one of the hardest things,but with Gods help u can do it. cry out 4 his help

4 priska

god bless u. love u so much. i never stop thinkin about u. i love ur heart so much. i constantly worry about how u r n if love has found n if so how is it treating u. from experience i know that love is one of the most misunderstood words in the english language. that's y i'm glad there is a god who will teach us the right definition of love,keep in mind he is the definition of love. as we let him love on us we get a better understanding of what love looks like,how 2 express it,n how 2 expect others 2 show it 2 us. we begin 2 b able 2 distinguish love from lust n love from 'love' or 'luv'. we also begn 2 know who we r n what people should n could n would love about us. yes we're love worthy,no matter our past,no matter how we look,what race we r,etc..

priska god loves me n u so very much. i just know he's gone bless us with the blessing of being reunited,in spite of the mistake made that seperated us in the 1st place. yes god is good n his mercy endures 4ever. keep prayin he specializes in the impossible. read mark 11:22-24 amn god bless
