BEYOND SEX

All of My life, I've heard, "there's power in word's ", and when I was 16 years old I figured that the power should be in the thing or situation described by word's.

Today, people use words like:

Homosexual (c.1868), Transvestite (c.1922), Transexual (c.1957), Transgender (c.1979).

LGBTQIA+ has become more complex to " gaysplain" to each other, and further provides colloquial demeaning ammunition against everyone not identifying as so-called straight, for those who choose to create ways to attempt to delude the power of fellow humans.

A transgender lady, became vindictive when I denied her sexual advances. Finding Me sexually attractive is both healthy and natural, in My opinion, however, Her knowledge of Me being an openly gay desiring no Woman sexually, did not register to Her, as acceptable, and She took great offence. While our amazing transgender sister's are the Women they present as, they too require education about how if people who are like Me, and have no sexual desire for a Women, what would make us change our minds for people that present as a Women?

Not even all Men prefer all women, and vis-à-vis so in this regard, My transgender sister valued Me as a Man, for

Her own gratification and desires, while therefore devaluing Me as a GAY Man, hence the word Gay having no power In Her misunderstanding and misinformation about the sexual entegrity of everyone not so transgendered.

As a gay man, and trans-ally, I care that My transgender sisters are viewed as undesirable to most straight men, and some straight women that don't even view transgender women as so-called "real women" which is mind blowing in itself, but also, to know that a real so-called "gay man" also don't desire them sexually, and that can sometimes land on an immature soul as a low self-esteem matter In an incarcerative situation, I created this dictionary to, amongst other things, empower ALL Queer people, and for us to have access to words that unify us beyond sex.

Conclusion

0000000000000000
LOVE• LOVE• LOVE
0000000000000000

It is therefore My finding that throughout history, the pattern of the spread of religion around the world was a tactical attempt to commit genocide of all preexisting SPIRITUAL systems within every culture in a blatant declaration of war against mankind on Earth.

While the manipulation of Elders and enslavement of persons was used to control, it was the the open attack on Tribal Spiritual leader's that that was used to make the world submit, and convert.

In global society, I have discovered the curators of artifacts, the sacred builders, family and relationship counselors, the maintainer's of cultural dance, rituals and ceremonies, drummers, musicians, warrior's and locator's of water have been described in many cultures as people with high numbers that either identified as to some degree as Ethnographically LGBTQIA+, or was openly known in respective communities as such.

This to Me implies that homophobia is a byproduct of genocide of people, in company with, the strategic design to achieve victory in wars without declaration in the formal sense, as there is no record of Portugal declaring war on Africa before they set foot on the Continent, now search this Liberated Fact in Your Ancient cultural records, in most if not all Christianized countries,

The war against Queer people around the world is what has been described by most believers of the so-called god of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob as;

SPIRITUAL warfare!

War is an ugly mutual thing, and I have not found in history where all Queer persons globally waged war on the so-called god of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, or anyone, so, this is not war, this is BULLYING, for enmity does not exist from the side of the documented victims, and survivors, who chose to continue in love.

In every language, these words are about,

Love!
