

Melody Is Harmony

Where, a beauty as yours I do prefer
The honor of its fruits with a body to confer Eloquent collaboration illustrating poetry's verse Reverberate you quench and create thirst!
And, this love ballad bores such sequenced rhythm Melody is harmonious 'jus' as system is system,
When, I could have and hold about my years Friendship is a motive that beautifies atmospheres Fragrance and luxurious landscape to duet
As legend as Adam and Eve posing for poets.

JUSTICE IS VINDICATION

The judicial contest of innocence upon wrongful convictions labors as brave as sandpaper against a stubborn surface steadily scratching arguments in post conviction briefs to appeal as relentless as a spring sun thawing the frost in seek of justice from the winter of fabricated reports that frost bites innocent beings malicious as the most harsh and unhumane conditions.
Justice is vindication bidding freedom
