

VIRA L. LOAD

- CARLOS -
(SUNDIATA IBN (SLAM))

She was an old hand at being positive
And I was young and negative when we met
So we kissed while flirting with
Mutually assured destruction daily
Such is the ambiance of promiscuity
For the curious and seeking
The sexual expression of self unprotected
Romance with Vira is by less than chance
(Note to self:)

Lets not ever be foolish again
Her kind of love is contagious
When unceremoniously incubated
In uninhibited nether regions for personal advantages
Should weather permit it body fluid exchanges
The exposed moisture of the carnal is predacious
And survival befits only those with the will to live
To reverse transcriptase on a regimental basis
Because lets just face it

This is a war

Poor souls in search of ecstasy be fore warned
There is none to be known
When you fight for life
In the hostile throes of Vira L. Load
