

I have been here for 6 years and I have compiled a lot of addresses that will be of great benefit to other prisoners and family and friends of prisoners. I plan to share several addresses each week as I continue to blog courtesy of this great program called "Between the Bars".

I would also be greatly interested in corresponding with anyone that has an interest in sharing ideas for new ideas, inventions and innovation of new products. I have a lot of time to think and I would love to brainstorm with someone.

Please write me and I will respond to all as soon as possible.

I like to write although my writing is at most legible so please bear with me as I do at times get "carried away". ☺

For my initial resources I will share a portion of addresses for free books for prisoners. You are welcome to share these addresses with any prisoners you know. These are all very good "free" book programs.

Thank you all and please comment and write me.
