

* Connected Through God *

4-8-11

I NEED something more than FREE will, independence, or specialness. I need something more than private thoughts, a personal code, or a splendid point of view. I NEED people!!! Not in order to stay alive but in order to be fully alive, fully human, to be affectionate, funny, playful, generous, happy. I CAN love a concept - I CAN study it, meditate on it, and repeat it to others - but I CAN'T throw my ARMS AROUND it. And that's what God is: Arms around us All.
