

BLOG/ APRIL...

This is my first blog ever. Allow me to intro myself...

My name is Terra O'Key. I'am originally from SanDiego, California. I am currently serving a 17 year sentence for felony stupidity (smile), Im over 1/2 way done with my sentence and am looking forward to the day I can lead a simple, Quiet life.

I could go into the woe's of being incarcerated or the injustices suffered daily or the appalling living conditions and I will at some point but for now I will keep the intro positive.

I'm a Nichiren Buddhist (Nam-myoho-renge-kyo) My favorite passage in the (WND) Writings of Nichiren Dashonin, is the one essential phrase. Faith, Practice and Study along with my work on the Men's Advisory Council keep me busy. It is Ironic that I'am part of the Men's Advisory Council me being trans and all :) My favorite artist is Kakamia Jahad Imarisha (look him up). Favorite music Early 20th Century Jazz (female). Love drama as long as its in small doses. I could go on and on and I will in my next blog and cover an array of topics.

I look forward to sharing my future posts with all of you.

P.S. Not my best photo so I'll post more later.

All My Best..... Terra.
