

As i sit here in my cell, quietness Surrounds the 6'x12'x9' room. The air from a vent blowing heavy in to the cell because the other cell next to mine and the two cell's down stair's are partially blocked, which makes for gale force wind in here. So in return, we to have to block ours, just to make it live able. It's got to be around 10-12 decibel.

I have a cell mate (Bunkie) or (celly) (By the way, don't try to look them up in the dictionary, they are not in there.) He is very quiet and dose not speak much. He is mexican and dose not underderstand very much english. I am hispanic, but i do not understand or speak spanish. AS you can see i can barely write and spell english. That is suppost to be funny!, by the way! It's a long story why i don't speak spanish. Both my parent's, and grandmother are americans and thay could speak Both english and spanish. I was Raised being hispanic, but I am sure i have a lot of different blood in my body, from spanish, to mexican and probably indian (American). I guess it still dose not explaine why i don't speak spanish, being hispanic!

when we start to talk about ethnic in America we all have our own interpretations to what is Right. Let's face it! we should be called Euro American's. You Know! 1/2 the U.S.A. has British Blood in american's Body!

So who is to say that it's a bad thing!?

As my new found fame, aspiring writer, i will attempt not to make a fool out of my self! Oh Waite! to Late, i am in Prison all ready! I am glad i got that out of the way.
