

Domestic Violence

This happens alot here in America today and, some loose their lives behind it. OR some really gets hurt. It's wrong but, women listen you can get away from it.

Get a restraining order. Go to a local shelter or go live with a Family Member temporarily.

Lets not forget this applys to men too.

Remember it's never right to Abuse one another. Let me give you an example of two musicians that encountered A Domestic Violence Dispute. R/B singer Robyn Rihanna Fenty R/B singer Christopher Brown back in 2008. She use to date Chris Brown a couple of years back 2008. He attacked Her in His Truck because she tried to take His Cellphone to see if any other girls numbers in His phone. It was showed in The USA Today (Newspaper) in 2008. He was out with Different girls During their relationship, so He definitely was Cheating on Her. I'm against a male hitting a Female period. I feel like that's a sign of weakness on a male behalf and, He should end their relationship before this occur. And, the only way this can be stopped is by Church congregations, Public schools, Neighborhood Communities Support etc. I heard she was thinking about getting back with Him. I pray she doesn't. He could Kill Her this time. He want change Males Are Violent. He went to Jail briefly And now is on probation, for His negative "Actions". They need to stay away from each other For Good.

A Few Questions for the "Viewers"

1. What would you do in a situation like this?
2. Would you go back to them?
3. Do you think He or she Ever Loved You?
