

Dear North Carolina;

4-22-11

Sorry it took so long!

Out of love I'll dedicate a song!

"He'll move Heaven & Earth to come rescue you when you call" - Nicole C Mullen

Also read 2nd Samuel 22 verses 7 thru 20

My condolences. Can't imagine the pain you feel.
I've never been in a tornado. But there is a human pain that's universal, that I've come to know. So I mourn with you in that respect.

As I prayed & got teary eyed, I was shown the destruction of your whole community (s) on CBS Saturday Morning show. God spoke as the news story highlighted the destruction to Lowes' home improvement store.

"Son, look at the community. Really look at it. Did you notice that the Lowes store was destroyed?" said God

Me - "Yes I noticed that! In my heart if I was free & could go help them ~~anywhere~~ naturally I would go to Lowes to get the tools to help the family rebuild."

"God" I know. After all there motto says it all ... LETS BUILD SOMETHING TOGETHER ... But Son don't be troubled or lose faith.

Use the blog to remind the people that I have ~~been~~ them & that I AM the ultimate Rebuilder Amen. That I will rebuild their community. Just like Lovers if they trust me WE can build something together.

Nothing is a hurdle for me.

I AM a God who Rebuilds & a God who Restores If they seek me with their whole heart I will be found by them...Amen I will rebuild & restore not only their lives, but their relationships. Not to mention I will restore their souls companionship with ME.

I will give them fresh air & breathe.

& Peace of mind in this storm (Isaiah 26:3)

I will protect them under the shadow of my protective wings. I will shelter them in here Kindness & compassion.

Let them know I AM a great GOD of love. That the tornadoes weren't ~~my~~ doing. Amen. The people need 2 know that the enemy - Satan - did this. Though I allowed it to happen doesn't mean I'm a bad or mean or uncaring God. But it does mean if you search your & soul that I AM ever present. Having on My People Amen. I hear their prayers & help is on the way.

"In patience, keep your souls."

Remind them to keep their eyes & & open because rarely do I answer prayers in the way they believe I should answer them. I love you enough to give you what I KNOW is best for you. (You might ask for a car & I might give you a bike; or have Mike pick you up everyday for work, even though you hate Mike! Keep in mind there's no HATE in my Kingdom).

Tell the people I love their unity & the way they came together. (Psalm 133). That my desire is for them to be United with Me, the Almighty God,

So WE can LOVINGLY - BUILD SOMETHING TOGETHER - like Eternal friendships Yes I'm that friend that sticks closer than a brother (mother, father, sister, friend etc -)

With everlasting love & kindness have drawn them."

That being said to those who don't know Jesus I encourage you to introduce yourself to Him. Amen. You can approach Him like you did to get the friends you have now! -By introducing yourself. Smile!! Maybe your friends introduced themselves to you, (www, you were shy-) so that's cool. Even so the good news is Jesus is waiting to do the same. That's His new-knocking at the door of your heart. Amen.

Apprehensive? Let me ask you a question - Why is it we hate to be judged, especially "by our cover"; yet we judge God by "It is cover?"

Some of us never read the Bible yet can tell you all about God! How does that work? We should at least take the time to meet God & hear what He has to say. Take time get to know Him before we pass judgment. Amen.

I'm just saying - we do it for people. think about it.

Love yall. In the closing Be Blessed

Sincerely,

Aut Andrew Murphy
