In Search of that Shining Star"

My search has taken me to places far and wide
What I saw and experienced came to me as a surprise
To have only quenched my thirst brought a lust to my eyes
I could have not imagined how bad I've been Deprived

In Search of that Shining Star

She has sometimes been right in my face
My head was too far in the clouds to see her Style and Grace

May be I have lost that chance that comes only once in a life time

To have had a shining star in my life who's love is one of a kind

In Search of that Shining Star

She must be of the loving intelligent kind
Devoted to own her womanhood and of strong Body, heart, and mind

Caring to those she call family, loyal to (the one she call her man)

Open to going that extra mile to be the best friend she can

In Search of that Shining Star

When I find her my life will be complete

Entering my world her life will be so sweet

②

She'll see that (Khalfani malik Khaldun) is
The man she can't wait to meet
Who is Qualified to heal all of her Pain and remove her feelings of being Incomplete

(The Strength In Standing alone)

I am currently being held against my will my captors have kept me isolated from the world
They have sought to disconnect me from those I love/trust
In an attempt to drive me Insane

Their actions against me have caused me to adapt and Endure
Growing more wiser by the day confident and Sure
If they manage to achieve their goal to cut me off from The outside i will do this Strong and alone . . .

Complete Control over my existence that they seek They show us they are inferior with fear and surely weak
So my work is swift against their agenda/goals to excommunicate me thru isolation from it all i will always regain my Composure by Standing Tall.

"Still Standing still fighting for freedom"

There is a strength in Standing alone
A man who know who he is will be capable of maintaining his survival it is Necessary

I will never be broken in the face of great adversity

Do you know your own Strengths?

(making The Impossible Possible)
How Can we fight against all the Odds
When those in Charge Seek our Demise
Can we dig deep down inside and not hide
The Blood/historical Pride and Strength in our Eyes

Do we Surrender when it Seems all hope is Gone
When it appears everyone has left us all alone
The Courts have Said you'll never Go Home
Can we hold on . . . or give in to defeat or . . .
Listen to our Spiritual Voice that Shouts Brotha you keep Keeping on

Can we make the Impossible Possible
By hold our heads up to the Sky and our chest out
Study hard to figure out a new route
That will open up these Gates to See our Bodies, hearts, minds, and Souls, free
Will you step up and promote my Struggle for me

Through blood, sweat, and Tears we can do almost anything - and Change
The world that sits all around us
Do the Un-Doable - and make it happen
Let us in unity make the impossible
Possible
