Comments Response - I'd like to give a shout out to Puccessa, thanks for the encouragement and reminding me how important it is to keep an open mind. Good luck to you as well. Blessings!

Saorise1888 - Sounds like you've been traveling the Path of your Quest for some time now. I'm glad to hear you have faced the darkness and survived. Once the Quest is begun there is no stopping it. It's only a matter of time now, enjoy the adventure as much as you can! And, yeah, the synchronicities, omens, and all that, I believe it is the language of God. Write me anytime, and good luck!

bboyatwork - Hey, great quote from Martin Luther King Jr. Really got me to think. Both destined and free, kind of a dialectic, stepping out of the either/or pattern so many of us get stuck in. I agree ~~that~~ reality is only a perception, and yes, our choices are what's leading the whole circus. Cool that you mentioned choices, I'm going to discuss the freedom to choose at this week's Mindful Living group. Thanks for reading my blog and leaving a comment. Now I know I'm not just writing a personal journal!

Mad52 - Hey bro! Sorry, no Roy. I'll write you soon.

Thanks everyone! It was very encouraging to receive your comments. Write anytime and happy Questing!
