

Sunday, May 1st
2011

Hello Everyone!

As you know from my profile page, my name is Tony and I am serving life in Florida. I was convicted of first degree murder. I have been in Florida for 16 years and locked up for 13 of that 16. I have been in prison for a little over 11 years (the rest of the 13 was in the County Jail) and 9 of them 11 I have been on Close Management. Close Management (C.M.) is a type of administrative confinement for people who can not live in open population without causing a safety and/or security concern (trouble maker, basically). C.M. has 3 levels with I being the most restrictive and III being the least. C.M. I is single man cells and the other 2 levels are double man cells. Each level is a minimum of 6 months. Any D.R (disciplinary report) within that 6 month review period can, and in most cases will extend that current level for another 6 months. I am currently on C.M. I! I should be having my next review in October. I have recently started studying Buddhism and I have made a serious effort to change around my life for the better.