

Hey, well what shall we talk about this time? How about sex? Did I ever tell you I'm a slut? I have always had a really over active sex drive, I can have sex with multiple partners all day and night long. I'm not bragging it's just part of who I am. I have been sexually active since I was 10 yrs. old and I truly enjoy bringing my lovers to orgasm as often as they can and that's before I actually penetrate them with my penis. I don't know whether it's a blessing or a curse but I'm one of the people who don't lose my erection just because I ~~just~~ ejaculated and I am rather proud of the fact that I can bring a dude to multiple orgasms. I love to make people feel good but I'm honestly a horny devil. Don't get me wrong, I truly care about the people I have sex with and I don't cheat on someone I am involved with, but I always end up with several lovers at a time. The first person ends up bragging about the sex we have and eventually they bring over a friend and we have a 3 some. After that more and more people get added. I understand that most people feel overtaxed by my sex drive but you wouldn't believe how many times my lovers tell me they want to watch me have sex with someone else. I'm not a shy person in the bedroom, I aim to please. During a four hour period one afternoon while I was checking out porn on the net I masturbated 23 times and I had to turn off my computer so I could lose my hard on. I am lucky in that I have never had a S.T.D. even though I have had over 300 lovers in my life. I may not remember all of their names but I do remember what they all looked like and believe it or not I really cared about each one of them. Some people think this is an awesome lifestyle, to me it's just my life, but I never have anyone in my life for very long. Sometimes I get lonely, sometimes I wonder if I'll ever find someone who can love me and stay with me, but I also realize that it could be worse. Hell, there are some people out there who can't get laid. You all take care of yourselves! Peace, Donny.
