

U CAN'T KEEP A GOOD MAN DOWN!!!

Michael Young
aka Zawadi

I love 2 read because I love 2 learn. I love 2 learn because I enjoy evolving. I enjoy evolving so much because I believe I have an Ultimate Destiny. The ancient Egyptians had a word 4 it: Summon Bonum. It means "highest good". And I'm striving to achieve my highest good. Although being in prison is a major setback, I'm learning to turn all my stumbling blocks n2 stepping stones. I love to communicate & I welcome all responses. My interests include music (from rock & roll 2 hip-hop & beyond), history, science, astronomy, politics, religion, the culinary arts & on & on. I'm a singer/songwriter & I'm an aspiring screenwriter & playwright. So, no matter what's on your mind, drop me a line & let's talk about it!

I'm 6'3½" tall & solidly-build at 250 pounds. I love 2 read because I love 2 learn. I believe I have an Ultimate Destiny. I'm striving 2 achieve my highest good. Although being in prison is a major setback, I'm learning 2 turn all my stumbling blocks n2 stepping stones. I love 2 communicate & I welcome all responses. My interests include music (from rock & roll 2 hip-hop & beyond), history, science, astronomy, politics, religion, the culinary arts & on & on. I'm a singer/songwriter & I'm an aspiring screenwriter & playwright.

I am also interested in UFOs - stories, pictures, cover-ups. Also, great conspiracy theories and alternative theories about the origin of life on this planet. I would be grateful if anyone would send me information on UFOs, especially good photos. I am a big UFOs buff and I need to get caught up on the latest.

So, no matter what's on your mind, drop me a line & let's talk about it! Help me keep my finger on the pulse of the world.

To All The Dreamers Out There

Michael Young

I'm a people person.

I love to communicate and I love to learn new things. I love music. I love all kinds of music but mostly classic R&B, old school and classic rock. I sing and write songs and poetry.

I dream of writing one great song that will unite the world. Then, poverty and war would disappear, never to return. Yeah, I know, it's a grand illusion. But you never know what can happen. One magic word might touch the heart of the next great world leader. Well, like John Lennon, I'm a dreamer. But I know I'm not the only one. So maybe this is a message to all the dreamers out there.

I've been in prison since 1990 so I've missed a lot. I'd really like to get caught up with the world. I love nature, beaches, the ocean, hiking and camping, cooking, books and movies. I also intend to write a great book one day; like most folks.

I welcome all responses but I'm really hoping to find a dreamer like me. I love to laugh. This is a picture of me cracking up and here's a little song from my heart.

Certain in Time

Give me music and laughter on beaches and hillsides,
Moonlight and sunshine in glasses of wine.
My body's imprisoned but my mind swims in visions and daydreams,
On planets where new colors shine.
We all need hands for loving and holding,
To bear up our pride when it crashes.
It's only God's plan for shaping and molding,
That's certain in time thru the ashes.
Give me children and ball games and long rides on slow trains,

(2 of 2)

To polish the apples of my eye.
My body's imprisoned but my mind buzzes and whizzes,
And daydreams of times gone by.
We all need hands for loving and holding,
To pull on our coats and straighten our ties.
It's only God's plan for shaping and molding,
That brings us full circle and it's certain in time.
Long, long are the hours I spend,
Thinking of you and where I would've been.
Long gone, the games we used to play,
Can it be I've been blessed the chips have fallen this way?
Give me shadows on concrete, the beat on any street,
Cool jazz for my mind, hot funk for my feet.
True love for God and all of mankind,
These are the things that spin round in my mind.

By Michael Young

Peace and love forever.
