Dear Blog Readers,
Please read this blog with an open heart,
mind and understanding.

I am of the age of forty-four. I weigh 180 pounds, standing 5'10". My complexion is of a pecan reddish dark tan; short wavy black hair and a full white smile.

I am very educated, particularly in Georgia Criminal and Civil Law. Presently, I'm presenting my criminal case within the Butts County Superior Court located here in Georgia. I have a 90% chance of prevailing.

I am an easy going and laid back man. I am very sociable and love meeting new and interesting people.

I have confined hobbies due to my incarceration. They are reading, writing, drawing, studying and coaching others in a better path. If I was not incarcerated, my hobbies above would be the same, but added that I love to work, hike, bicycle riding, going out to eat and to the movies, spending a lot of quality time with my lady friend and just enjoying life as it is.

Hopefully, this Blog system will open up new means of communications between you and I.

In Great Hopes,
Joseph
