

* * * * * * PRISON SLANG * * * * * *

1. Dump TRUCK = refers to one that isn't VERY good in Competition, especially team Competition.
2. Zip Gun = A small home made gun with enough Deadly force of a "22" rifle.
3. Mark: A Person that is targeted for Death.
4. Pruno: Wine made by inmates.
5. Ducat: A Small Peice of Paper given by Staff when an Inmate has An appointment.
6. Keep Point = one that stands by to watch if the guards approach while an illegal instance is conducted
7. Girly man = A Pretty male that is homosexual.
8. Kite = A Short Letter
9. Sunshine = A Coded word among inmates in the hole meaning one needs a light for a Smoke.
10. Get along Chrono = A Paper that is Signed by "2" Combatants agreeing to no more fighting each other
11. Big Hommie = Is an inmate that has a lot of Power in a gang - one that has earned respect.
12. Shoot it = To Pass an Item to Another.

* * * * *
* * Continued * *
* * Prison Slang * *
* * * * *

13. Snow bunny = A word used by Black inmates to identify a white woman.
14. Rag head = A word used by the white inmates to demean other races.
15. Pony = A female that brings drugs into an institution for distribution of sales.
16. My Nigga = A term used to address others as a friendly greeting, as one says hello.
17. Race traitor = An inmate that disowns his own race and is deemed an enemy because of it.
18. Slinging ink = One who tattoos
19. Slinging them: One who is fighting with fists.
20. Keys to the yard = Usually an inmate who calls shots or sends inmates to carry out tasks like hits on inmates.
21. Shank = A sharpened piece of ~~metal~~
22. Holmes = A friendly form of addressing one another.
23. In the Hat = An inmate that is targeted for death and straws are drawn to see who is chosen to carry out the act.

* * * * *
* Continued *
* Prison Slang *
* * * * *

24. On the Shine = A person no one talks to because he did something he should not have.
25. On the Leva = The same meaning - As on the Shine
26. Candy ass = A Young Homosexual.
27. Getting them up = To fight.
28. It's hot = material or written kites that could get you into trouble if confiscated.
29. Gut Rot = Whiskey made from Pruno by distilling it.
30. Clucking = Selling merchandise cheap.
31. Bone YARD visits = Housing within the facility where inmates can visit with family privately.
32. Got A fish on the line = When a certain person is thought to be glib enough to be used for gain.
33. RAT = One who tells or snitches.
34. On the down Low = Not drawing attention to your self.
35. COVER UP = Instead of removing a tattoo - one is tattooed over the old one.

37. Pay Rent = A Weak inmate is made to pay money if he wants to stay unharmed.
38. Hanging on my boots straps. when someone continually comes to ask for things - he's considered a Bum.
39. Your getting heavy = A person that is a Bum and never repays what he borrows.
40. Zipper Cut = A razor cut from ear to ear made to make one bleed out.
41. Touch down = One says it when a kite or merchandise makes to its destination from another inmate.
42. Suited and booted = inmates use the term to let another inmate to be alert at the possible danger. meaning he should be ready with shoes on.
43. In the mix = something that is anticipated to happen or being planned.
44. Knack = A person that is not considered to be of the in crowd - A weaker person.
45. Dog = A term used to address your friend or partner.
46. Home boy = someone that lives in the general area where you live.

* PRISON Slang *

47. Clicks = Various gangs.
48. Drop a dime = To tell on someone.
49. A flick = Usually a family picture.
50. Pinner = A small rolled joint.
51. Cho-mo = A Child molester.
52. "2" fiver = A New gang in the Protective Custody Population.
53. New flower = ANOTHER gang in the Protective Custody Population.
54. Eating Cheese = A person who is considered a coward.
55. Iced = Someone that is stabbed to death.
56. Break bread = To share with someone.
57. Yard dog = one that stays outside all day.
58. It popping = usually to identify a riot.
59. Bust it out = Means to share.
60. Stepping on toes = Getting into a transaction that doesn't pertain to you.

* * * * *
* PRISON Slang *
* Continued *
* * * * *

61. End of the line = usually refers to a life sentence.
62. Bulls = Correctional officers.
63. Man down = Is yelled by inmates when someone is in need of medical help.
64. Cell warrior = A person who yells from a cell to another cell with threatening voices.
65. Runner = A person that delivers messages or merchandise especially illegal things or messages.
66. Bounce = To leave an area.
67. Break mine off = It is said when one has a portion of something or an anticipation of sharing in it.
68. Dragging = Stalling for time.
69. Bone crusher = A weapon used to break bones and made from plastic.
70. Big Bertha = A gun that is used to disable fights - It shoots rubber projectiles.
71. I send mine = A way of saying I respect you.
72. A mission = A person who is sent to stab a particular inmate

* * * * *
* MORE TO COME SOON *
* * * * *