

Blog Post: THE DRAGON AIGUO FA NETWORK MOVEMENT

THE 21ST CENTURY IS THE CHINESE CENTURY

HELP US RECORD IT?

On my former college campus at the University of Minnesota I vividly recall two fantastic Chinese restaurants. One was called the Village Wok, the other one was called the Peiking Garden. What I distinctly remember was not just the quality services and the great food, but how those Chinese entrepreneurs made their restaurants a central place on campus to do important business or go to on important dates.

Chinese immigrants to America and their Chinese American descendants are a great asset to this country. I think the most important lesson everyone can learn from them is their determination and great humility that they exhibit in everyday life.

Do you know any Chinese immigrant entrepreneurs? Or first or second generation Chinese American entrepreneurs? Please share your stories after this Blog post. It's very important that we start to record Chinese Excellence and Achievement around the world.
