

4.8.11

To whom it may concern:

I don't want to talk about myself because I'm appealing my case and it seems like all people want to do is twist my words around.

From Psalm 56:

"All day they twist my words;
All their thoughts are against me
for evil
They gather together, they hide,
They mark my steps, when they
lie in wait for my life."

"[W]e'll be laying in wait for [the suspect]."

"Alaska State Troopers"

That's what the motto said; word for word.

I suppose it's only significant if I say I'm laying in wait for someone, but if a Trooper says it, it's okay. Whatever.
