16. INSTITUTIONAL ADJUSTMENT: Since his arrival in the Bureau of Prisons, Irby has displayed excellent institutional adjustment.
- a. Program Plan - On January 28, 1998, Irby was initially classified to IN custody, regular duty, correctional counseling, Post Secondary Education, and placed on the UNICOR waiting list.
 - b. Work Assignments - Irby was initially assigned to work in the Food Service Dining Room, where he received satisfactory work reports. According to his job supervisor, he had a positive relationship with his co-workers and was not considered a management problem. On May 22, 1998, Irby was reassigned to the UNICOR Print Factory. Presently, he is earning third grade pay and is receiving above average work reports.
 - c. ~~Educational/Vocational~~ Participation - File material indicates Irby completed 12 hours of Introduction to Sociology. He did not complete this course due to a conflict in his work schedule. Presently, he is enrolled in an American History course.
 - d. Counseling Programs - Irby participates in correctional counseling on an as needed basis. Also, he is actively involved in individual counseling with our Psychology department.
 - e. Incident Reports - None.
 - f. Institutional Movement - On January 22, 1998, Irby arrived at USP Leavenworth for service of the remainder of his state sentence.
 - g. Physical/Mental Health - Presently, Irby is regular duty status with a medical restriction of hearing. There are no signs of any emotional or psychological problems which would preclude him from gainful employment upon release.
 - h. Progress on Financial Responsibility Plan - File material indicates Irby has no court ordered financial obligations.

RELEASE PLANNING: Presently, Irby states if he is released from his Wisconsin State sentence, he will return to the Madison, Wisconsin area. Also, he states he has no firm place of residence and will need to seek suitable employment.

- a. Residence - To be obtained.
- b. Employment - To be obtained.
- c. USPO - State of Wisconsin.
