I CAN'T AFFORD MY CIVIL RIGHTS

OR -

THE PROSTITUTE WON'T PLAY UNTIL THE PIMP HAS HIS PAY. Ave!

For the benefit of the naive or obtuse (unfortunately neither one in short supply in this once intelligent & informed Republic): It must be declared that the United States Court System is the most licentious of whores; only slightly less odious and lascivious than our prostitutive legislature. About both it can unequivocally be stated that all of her services have a price; and since you get only what you pay for, the wealthy customer receives an abundance of service. But the indigent can look forward to exactly what they can afford. NOTHING, except that a poor man who dares

② approach her requesting a bit of accommodation will be rewarded with heaps of Scorn and insult. ~

$ Justice isn't free after all, and time is money. You must pay to play my girl as neither the pimps on the bench nor the $olicitors$ at the bar will allow you to lift Lady Justice's Skirts for only a prayer, or a plea. Such solemn yet soiled robes part only at the command of the procurator$ of His Corporate Majesty's $ervice.

U.S. Inc. will tolerate the occasional gratuitous intercourse between the hoi polloi and the once august and sovereign mistress who in times past spread her beneficence for them as justly as she now spreads her legs for the corporate aristocracy. However, such tokens are but obliquely contrived victories of a nature and degree sufficient only to support the façade that this system is composed of social and political structures by which a free people govern themselves.

In reality those ancient landmarks, erected at great cost in blood and wealth,

③ have long since been moved by our semi-elected, so-called representatives over whom the same corporations wield de facto and absolute dominion. All of this has occurred because We The People have fought - for Rights for Rule by bought-and-paid-for political charlatans.

We-you and I both- have become a nation of ineducable pseudo-patriotic puppets who don't want to be confused with the facts; true believers who have been made obdurate by constant corporate propaganda; brain-dead consumers who have been sedated into insensibility by an endless series of distractions which alternately cater to our narcissism and play on our insecurities and fears; blatant liars who can continue to engage in moral posturing and spreading such outright falsehoods as liberty, equality, and fraternity by narcotizing our minds and consciences; or cynical and apathetic marionettes for whom the whole charade is just so much swill for the swine.

What does this augur for the future? Will there even be a future, or at least one worth living in?

④ I don't have the answer, nor do I have solution or cure to sell you. Then, you may ask, why even point out the disease if you cannot offer either diagnosis or course of treatment?

Injuria non excusat injuriam

One wrong does not excuse another. Just because we are, as of yet, ~~so~~ deficient in knowledge of how to solve a problem does not give excuse to remain deficient in knowledge of the problem.

Non decipitur qui scit se decipi

She is not deceived who knows herself to be deceived.

Summation: $will for the $wine. Back-luster and loathsome leaders libel liberty while paying lip-service to conservative creeds or lipsyncing a liberal liturgy. They listen to livid lobbies deliver litanies

5 of litigious locution, and they then lay the logistics of labyrinthine legislation requested in exchange for lucre no less.

All the while the lineage of libertarians turned listless libertines are lead over the ledge, some leaping and others limping, like lemmings, to a lethal locale, right behind legions of logrolling and looting lawyers. Let there be light!

With that I close... For now. Sisyphus is driven to not leave that stone unturned for long.
