A woman can give you love,
just like a white Dove.

A woman can be fun.
up under the hot sun.

A woman can heal your pain.
when we think we have nothing to gain.

A woman has Grace.
and, she knows Her Place.

A woman is strong.
but, she want Prolong.

A woman is Gold
and, will not be sold,

A woman will due Her part.
because she is smart.

A woman is Fine

A woman is bold.
And, can be Very cold.

A woman will treat you like a King.
She knows you wear the Ring.

Color-Blind-Love

June 7, 2011

I was reading this Ebony Magazine May 2011 in this cell J 13115. I came across an article. I decided to speak about it. Called Color-Blind-Love.

This type of mixed dating/ marriages been going on since I was born. A lot of (our) African-Americans males are on Drugs, locked up, or Dead And, the other ones love white woman, because they can control them better, I heard them mention it in the past.

They say Black Women are to aggressive and gold-diggers why would our Black Men belittle our Black Women. We came from a woman what sense does that make? None. Me personally I could never date outside my race. I'm not racist or anything.

But another race couldn't satisfy me, I love my Black People. One thing, I've learned in Life people should do what makes them happy. And not follow another person footsteps because that wouldn't be real.

Can you really find true happiness outside your Race? Why does race matter if you looking for true love? I think biracial children are beautiful males/ females ones Oh! I've seen some attractive white men and women in my life. And I've told them in the past. But, I just can't cross that line. It's just not in my bloodline.

Between 1980 and 2008, rates of intermarriage among Blacks nearly, note the Authors of the Pew Study Marrying out: one-in-seven New U.S. Marriages is inter-racial or interethnic.
