To all the B+B universe,

Well, hello everyone! I'm sitting here shoveling right now, got the taste for Chili's Bar and Grill, Babyback Ribs and their Onion Bloom. Yeah, after 16 years, it's still my favorite restaurant, along with, TGI. Friday's. You know, in here the food is sometimes worse than the garbage that's stuck at the bottom of the trash can. Then if you're in the position like me, doing this on your own, with NOONE to assist you financially, you are forced to eat this garbage or shovle. You know back in 2005, I used to get up at about 4am, shave, cut my hair, get out my nice white uniform, fix me 1/2 cup of coffee and wait for 7am. for the doors to open, so that I could go take me a 30 minute shower and get dressed to go to commissary, another word for (store). I'd buy (10) packs of coolies, (2) of all hygiene products, (10) bags of chips and $18.00 worth of Ramen Noodle Soups, which would be (72). As you can see, I love to eat! What's weird, at ~~me~~ my age, 35, my metabolism hasn't slowed at all and I appear to look like I'm in my early 20's. Anyway, I miss going to commissary! All that ended when my 2nd child died, there was an obligation on my behalf to make sure that my mother had the necessary funds to bury him nice. And it hurt, that the TEXAS Prison System, don't allow furlows for immediate family funerals. Sooo as the financial side of things started picking up, my mother passed away on me. She fell victim to Breast Cancer and Fibroids, passing away 3 days after Valentine Day 2009.

Back to the food ^u, before my incarceration I was taught how to cook by my granny, only (Soul Food), but during my incarceration I've obtained a degree in Food Service, which is like, (Culinary Arts). I have studied and come up with (2) business ideas, in which I will utilize what I've learned. I don't have the finances to upstart, but I'm going to go through ECU & Magil Enterprises, because in 2010, they merged to pool money to finance small businesses to medium size upstarts. I plan to get on my feet, by working on an offshore Oil Rig or at the refinery in Carlveston, TEXAS, because I am DSHA. certified. Enough for now, I'll post more in a few days. Ask questions and write me directly....
Your New Friend, Augustus

* I'm a real big Sina Evans fan, if you didn't know! She's an amazing woman, mother and singer. I wrote this song with her in mind to sing it.

Just to be Devoted

Chorus/Hook: → Just to be with you, Girl it's a dream come true
BECAUSE HERE WE ARE 20 years later and I'm still in love with you.

I'm happy for you....

I'm happy with you....

And the way I feel when I'm with you....

For another, NEVER would I desert you....

I'm so thankful....

To wake up next to your lovely face....

I'm so satisfied....

NEVER would I allow someone else to take your place....

And the way I feel for life....

It's all about you....

And the things that you do....

That keeps me faithful and in love with you....

Just to be with you! (stop music & song)
