Transient

Today went great until I got stuck in transient because of someone being deceitful & writing a form in my name. Instead of checking with me about it I get placed on lock 24-7 while they investigate. Too many people manipulate the system by those forms they drop. Yet if someone was really in trouble they wouldn't report it. No, they want you out of the way so they can run game on your friend.

I don't understand why I've got to walk through this, but Lord knows I am going to.

Silly games gets a person silly results. My Bible says "you reap what you sow." Therefore I am going to trust God in this.

One of the things I'll use this time for is for my word. I'll get my business taken care of for my newsletters. I'll write for my blog. I'll seek God & find Him. What I won't do is dwell on the why! I'll accept & move forward. I'll come out a better person.

Anyways, I wanted to tell you that when life gives you lemons - make lemon-ade.

Be Blessed
