

"SUCKER"

I aint no sucker cause I go to work everyday, trying to pay my bills

I aint no sucker, cause I finished school at the top of my class and was voted most likely to succede

I aint no sucker, cause I'm successful, and you call wearing a suit to work selling out

I aint no sucker, cause I choose to go home and kiss my children goodnight and only sleep with my wife

Don't you think that I'm a sucker, cause instead of buying that chain with a piece, I broke the chain of poverty and miseducation and got me a peace of mind

Or do you think that I'm a sucker, because I'm not worried about the police kicking in my door at any given time

On the strength though, the only thing that makes me a sucker is,

Sitting here explaining myself to you!
