

"FEARLESS"

It seems as if, as soon as I find myself I'm lost again
Everyday I wake up scared B.U.T. still I fear nothing
I have lived in death and swam in the desert,
Only to find myself locked in a cell
If heaven is on earth and richness are freedom, Then my poor ass is definitely in hell
I have found that true freedom exists within the mind of he who has found himself,
So if I stay true on the path of realization,
I may in fact find my wealth
It seems as if, as soon as I find myself I'm
lost again
Everyday I wake up scared B.U.T. still I fear nothing
