Why? you may ask yourself would he place his IQ results online for the world to view. Because I've nothing to hide. Simply put I must be somewhat vulnerable in order to obtain assistance while proving I am worth your time, energy and support.

Please come to my rescue. How am I to overturn my 35 year wrongful, excuse me, wrongful conviction without a voice, computer or support group?

Will someone please come forward and type the

1) Facebook.com 2) Myspace.com 3) Craigslist.com and 4) www.myprisonworld.com link requested?

As previously mentioned leave a comment so that readers of my blog and myself included would know.

Please realize how serious my dilemma is.

I have no one in my life. I have $3.61. I have a 35 year wrongful conviction based on a hoax claim of abduction and sexual assault.

Don't allow my whole life to be stolen because I was homeless, alone, poor and black.

Come on! Stand up, pick me up and collectively let's morally do the right thing. People of color and my white brothers and sisters do not be in a state of denial, the plain facts are that I was victimized by modern racism. Social economic barriers that deny full access, even in a court of law.

Moral dilemma, should I be denied justice because I can't afford an attorney?

In the pursuit of equality, freedom and justice. I need a larger audience. Sending you my love. JT2
