

Inmates families are allowed to order up to "4" Quarterly "30" pound packages from approved vendors, E.G. Walken hertz, Access, and Union Supply. The Companies send them to the institution, where they are distributed to the appropriate yard. However, this article is not about inmates getting packages - instead its about what they are not getting in their packages that the Companies send.

I was assigned to a yard crew position and I assisted my boss to pass out packages to inmates at the package room window.

I will not use my Ex-bosses real name as he still works within the institution. Instead I'll identify him as Gashog. He'd have me call inmates to the window one at a time, and sometimes he'd let me put paying inmates first. by doing such favors the inmates would give me 'snacks. Not all the inmates on the list would be given their goodies as the window was only open for an hour on its scheduled nights. So some inmates were more than willing to pay me something.

After working the window for a few months I noticed inmates (frequently) complain to Gashog that some of their merchandise was missing even though the package lists says it was in the box. Gashog would sign the sales receipt and vouch that the said items were not in the box.

The frequency aroused my suspicion that something wasn't right. I also noticed that program clerks were attaining goodies each night the package window was opened.

When the inmate population has to go back to their perspective housing I stay out to pick up the trash. (Continued) A2

I went by the package window which was partially opened and I saw Gashog getting packages ready to distribute that evening. As I stood there (unnoticed) Gashog took his utility knife & made a small slit in the bottom of the box and removed some goodies - that's when I asked him where's my cut. He was startled and also realized he was caught. He tossed a couple pastries to me and said, "You didn't see a thing" I responded - "See what" - He explained why he was stealing from certain inmates. In his words - "They are child molesters and other pieces of shit that like to file inmate appeals on staff." * * * * *

The (CDCR 22 (10/09)) form is a form provided to the inmate population - It was designed for us to request an interview with a designated staff member. Many of these are discarded within the building. I personally have filed hundreds of these forms and not one has been answered. In the weeks that follow - I will prove the correspondence between staff and inmates is a sham. I will also try and prove that the inmates grievance procedures is geared in favor of staff, and not inmates. This form is called (CDCR 602) Inmate Appeals. A blank form is displayed so as you can see it.
