

My name is Thomas Beam but most who know me call me 'Preacher'. This is a nickname given to me since I have been in prison because I spent my days passing out Christian tracts and spreading the Word of Jesus. I am still called that because now I am the ~~cleark~~<sup>CLERK</sup> in the Chapel and I spend my days teaching and serving in what ever capacity God calls me to edify the ministry here.

This was not always the case in my life. If it were I would not be here right now writing this profile page. I am a sinner and I am in prison because I belong here. I will go into more detail on this subject as time goes by but in the meantime please know that I now live only by the grace of God through faith in Christ Jesus to serve Him and help others who are drawn to Him by the Father.

I welcome you to my blog. I am so excited about this project because I want to bring to you a picture of how God works in the lives of prisoners in prison. I want to show that there are many of us who God uses and want to expell the preception of the negative "Jail House Religion."

I am not a professional writer so at times you may find grammatic or spelling errors. Please forgive those. Also, I will not always have access to a typewriter so some blog posts will be hand written. I truly look forward to responding to any comments, suggestions or Questions you may have through an additional blog post so please return often.

I also welcome you<sup>er</sup> letters. You may write me at:
