

Woman of Substance!

Please Allow this introduction to ease any skepticism and hopefully answer some of the questions running through your mind, and reveal my true essence. I am African-American 40, 6'0" 205 lbs, Brown eyes, Black hair. I enjoy writing, reading, working out, traveling, sports, music and anything of substance.

I am from Chicago, IL. I have obtained my Business, Business Management, Tax Preparation and Paralegal degrees while incarcerated. Can relate since thank so much to me let me just say the best description is the one you receive when you allow yourself to take more than a glimpse of the man but the heart and nature of my soul. Do not let my current circumstance affect your decision about the person I am. Instead allow my sincere thoughts speak to the inner voice of your soul and breathe life into your dreams and desires. So whenever you close your eyes and open your mind to fully understand and see the man I am but recognize the woman of substance I desire as a friend. I seek a friend who is understanding, caring, honest, loving, strong, genuine, intelligent, fun, trust worthy, open-minded, dedicated and determined. Age: Unimportant
