

What love Means

Welcome Readers,

I haven't Blogged in a while but I Now have a New Post.
Relationships: Some work, some don't, but can any body
Tell me why? Can you Tell Me what love Really Means?

Love: Love is an emotion, a feeling you get when you are deeply for some one, respect them, Trust them and you know they feel the same about you.

There's a part of me that wants to tell the world how much I love, and a part of me that wants to forget that love exists.
Is there any Love way to know when you're in love, or is it instant and spontaneously Love at First Sight?

Will women ever give men the clues to know what they're really thinking; or do every obvious sign a cover for yet another hidden truth?

Ladies, I am a man who would love to care for you, and treat you with the respect you deserve. I am single + trying to find the one who is right for me.

For all I know, she could be reading this right now, and I wish I could stare into your eyes + see what is on your mind and deep in your heart. A woman's eyes are the window to her world, everything she sees thinks + feels is in those eyes...

I have very dark brown eyes, and I like to keep you guessing about what I'm thinking. you can stare into my eyes forever + become lost in my thoughts, as I explain to you what makes you so beautiful in ways you never knew.
I'd love to spend more time talking to you personally, my address is on my profile page: Dave, Staying/pobox02172wankeshucul
I'm looking for women who want to be with me. 1872
