Exhibits A-G follow
in succession...

Dear Bloggers,

Sickness & death ain't nothing nice in PRISON, cause when you die in ~~prison~~ here, your stuff is put in a box - just like you & the only obituary you get is the word DEATH next to your name & CDC #. (see exhibit 'A')

9/11 has & is an awful tragedy - there's enough pain in the world - all because of "Weapons of Mass Destruction" that never existed, now every day Sikhs are suffering taunts based on ignorance. 10 years later, society, one would think would've ventured to learn, educate and embrace. Instead a huge controversy brews over whether or not a Mosque should be built.

Sept. 9th, 2001 was a day Twin Towers fell, but it was also a day, just because of my ethnicity, I was determined by "Prison Officials" to "Endanger Institution Security" because my last name is SINGH & I AM A SIKH. Each year as 9/11 approaches, I know, so will discrimination. Unfortunately, the one(s) who may negatively harass or pester me are "guard" instead of inmate but the daily pat downs, searches & 'write-ups' are always responded to by thorough 'Citizen Complaints' & 602 'Prison Grievances'. Maybe it will stop one day. Just daily prison life as a Sikh.

ALI ABBAS
IRAQI CIVILIAN

"I think the military target was 2 km, 3 km away from us—even more perhaps. It's not very close to us. We live in a farm, and all our sheep and cows are outside. I don't see any reason why this happened."

DAISY KHAN
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, AMERICAN SOCIETY FOR MUSLIM ADVANCEMENT

"We had been shut out from this tragedy for almost 10 years. And then when we tried to do something that was a center of healing and a center of openness to all, people said, 'No, this is not your tragedy. You're not going to do this here. This is not your country.' And that hurt. That hurt for the first time, because I had never experienced discrimination firsthand."

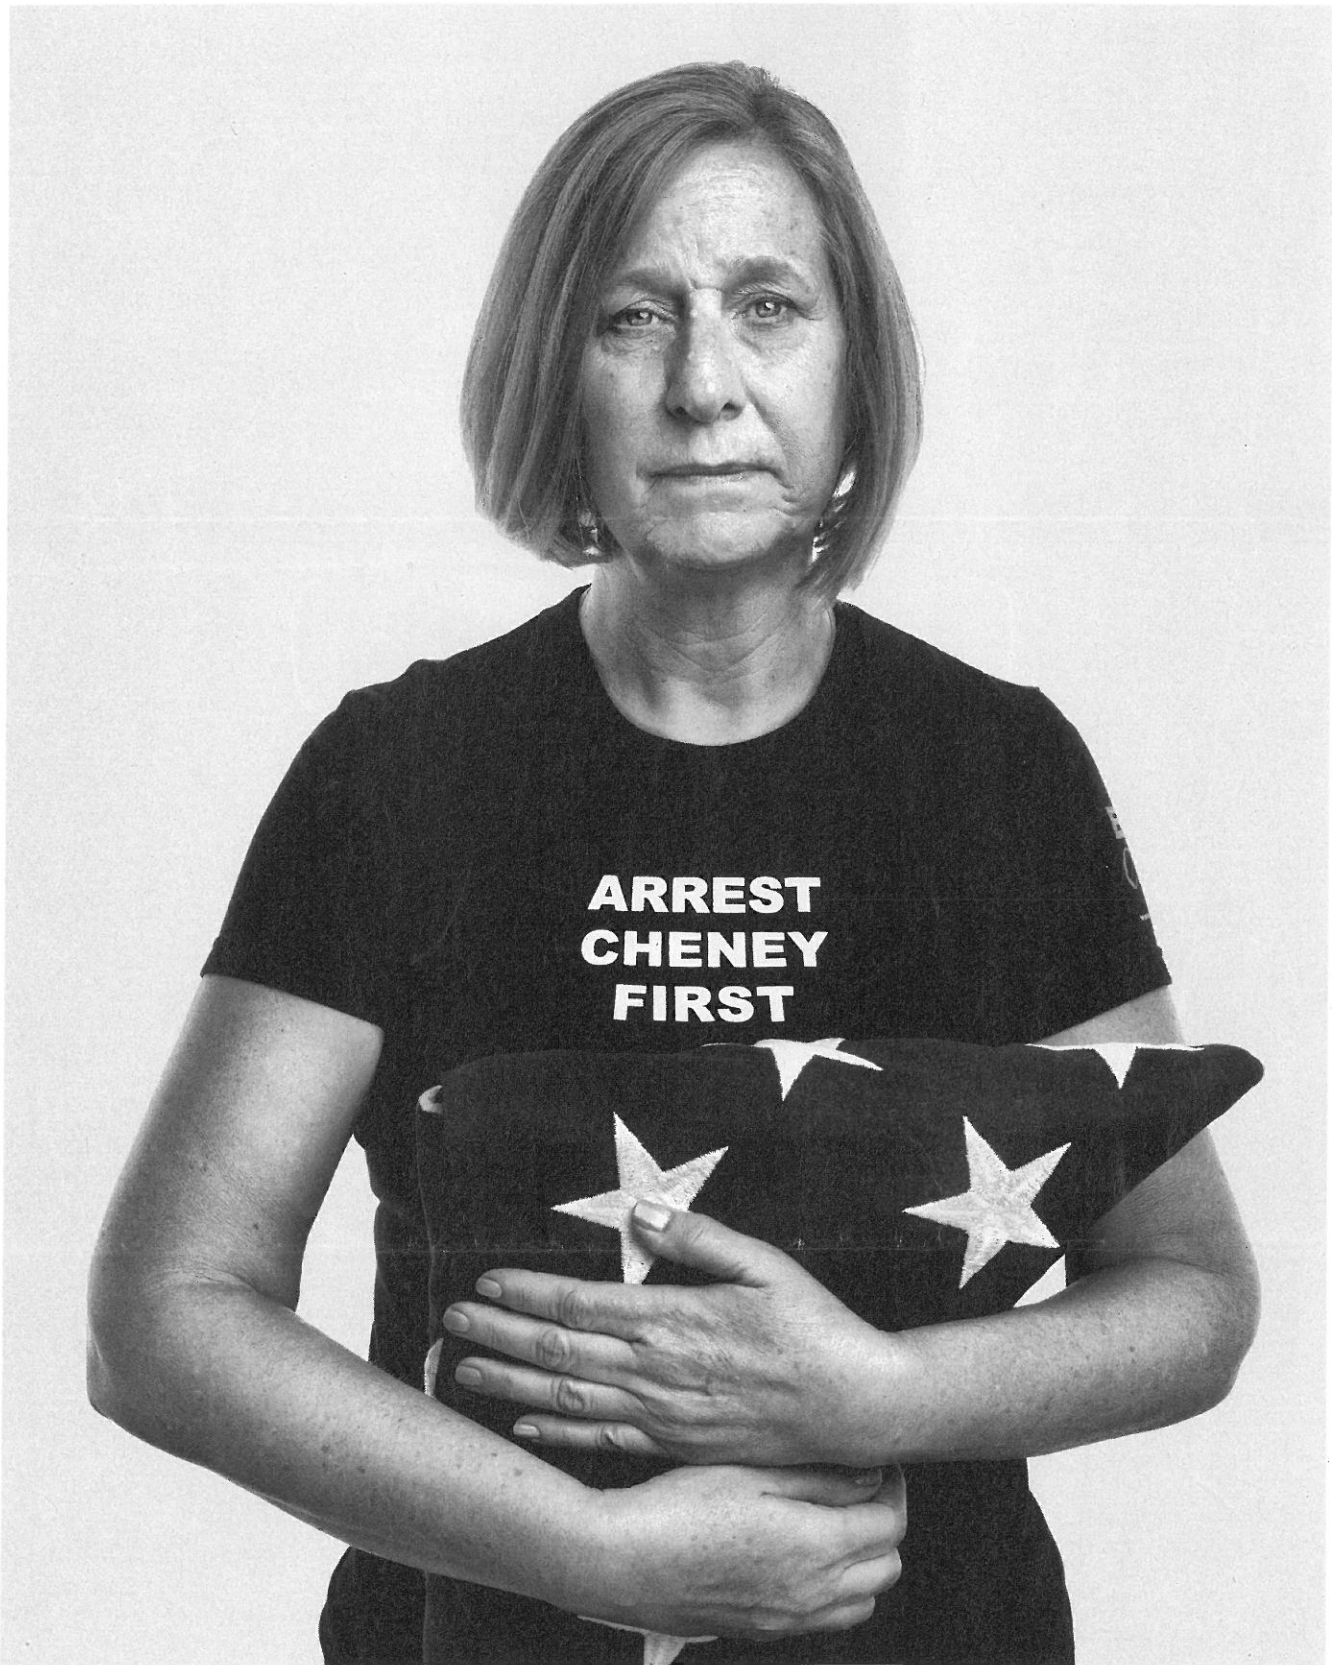

JAMES YEE

FORMER MUSLIM CHAPLAIN, U.S. ARMY, STATIONED AT GUANTÁNAMO BAY, 2002-03

“In the process of raising concerns about prisoner abuse in Guantánamo, I thought I was being recognized for doing a good job. Instead, when my plane landed at Jacksonville Naval Air Station, I was swarmed by customs officials, immigration officers, intelligence officers. I was arrested in secret. It was like I had disappeared in America, in my own country.”

CINDY SHEEHAN
ANTIWAR ACTIVIST AND MOTHER OF CASEY SHEEHAN, KILLED IN IRAQ IN 2004

"I think that moms resonate with everybody. If you're not a mom, you have a mom. And usually you have a good relationship with your mom, and even a lot of people who didn't agree with me understood that relationship."

REASON(S) FOR PLACEMENT (PART A)

- PRESENTS AN IMMEDIATE THREAT TO THE SAFETY OF SELF OR OTHERS
- JEOPARDIZES INTEGRITY OF AN INVESTIGATION OF ALLEGED SERIOUS MISCONDUCT OR CRIMINAL ACTIVITY
- ENDANGERS INSTITUTION SECURITY RETAINED IN ASU AS NO BED AVAILABLE IN GENERAL POPULATION

DESCRIPTION OF CIRCUMSTANCES WHICH SUPPORT THE REASON(S) FOR PLACEMENT:

On Tuesday, September 11, 2001, you are being placed on Administrative Segregation status as a result of the National disturbance. You are being placed in Administrative Segregation for your own safety and that of the institution. Based on the above, your presence in the San Quentin Reception Center jeopardizes the safety of staff, other inmates and is deemed a threat to the safety and security of the institution. You will remain on Administrative Segregation status pending further investigation into this matter and pending your appearance in front of the Institutional Classification Committee (I.C.C.), who will determine your appropriate housing and/or program needs. This lock-up is being ordered by Correctional Lieutenant J. W. Reid.
