

Sarah Palin; in love with a former colleague!

team, Palin wrote to deputy Natural Resources Commissioner Marty Rutherford: "Thank you-you rock- i love you- hold the fort down for me and kick TC in the butt as they hustle towards our gasline!!!"

Stories we haven't heard and photos we haven't seen? Wow, you really outdid yourselves NatGeo!

This is a game-changing business-model. No, this is a revolution!

And thanks for setting the record straight; Deepwater was an accident, just like BP's Texas City refinery explosion, and just like the hundreds of thousands of crude that was spilled on the north-slope in '06.

Trespass, litter not acceptable

I'm still not clear why squatters have the right to trespass, litter, pollute and destroy the city's park lands at our expense.

Fishcamp, AK?

Innocents don't litter, steal

Liberals, moderates and die-hard conservatives all live near Chester Creek and we all share in the bitter harvest of "good intentions" gone terribly wrong in regards to you know who.

They used to say the road to hell is paved with good intentions.
