

1st 1st DUDEN BYO POE VERSE

They say I'm negligent,
but so intelligent
casting blame without evidence.
To those who hate,
tell them the world is my residence.
My mind is so heaven sent,
Rhythm is my instrument,
my name is one verse,
and my heart is the president.
My purpose is to operate.
my life,
a plan to obviate.

other poets, I aggravate.
Tell those women who moderate.
My walk is to navigate... never negotiate.
To hang for myself and the youths who associate.
Haters I exterminate,
with these poems I invented,
tell them I facilitate.
Resemble and I fabricate,
the qualishs to fascinate.
My word be the law,
so tell them I federate.
A particle to figurate,
my readiness I demonstrate.
you do what I never do,
Tell them I educate?
