"It's always better to have the idiot in the tent peeing outside than being outside peeing in."

I'm out of the hospital and doing okay. My sense of humor is slowly returning so if you're the sensitive type read no further.

A married couple were lounging around their bedroom when the wife announces she wants a boob job.

Wife: How, I want bigger boobs, but they're so expensive!

Husband: Whatever you want pumpkin.

This goes on for months. She won't spend the money but can't stop talking about having small boobs.

Finally the husband has had enough.

Husband: I've found a solution to both problems he announces.

Wife: Tell me (she pleads).

Husband: Go grab a roll of toilet paper.

She runs and grabs it.

Wife: Alright, now what?

Husband: Everyday take some

and rub it BETWEEN your boobs.

WIFE: How will it make my boobs bigger?

Husband: It worked for your ass didn't it? 😊

How many of you BELIEVE IN LIFE
after death?
Why?
