

The Battle Ready Prayer

Praises be to the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob

The holy one of Israel, Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end

I give you thanks and praise for your goodness, your mercy and your grace.

I give thanks for a mind to pray, a heart to seek your face and authority to bring my members into subjection to Your will.

I thank you for this moment and the opportunity that each day brings. I know that each day is special and I am empowered with unlimited potential.

There are no ceilings on my life, obstacles that cannot be overcome or barriers that can stand in my way.

In fact, this is the greatest day of my life and I am free to exercise all the gifts and talents you have blessed me with.

My hopes and dreams can manifest today and I approach this moment with great expectation for miracles breakthrough and deliverance.

I stand before you, Lord, naked, offering no excuses or justifications for my shortcomings and weaknesses.

I come, Lord, seeking your standard and not those of men.

I pray that you will forgive me my sins, known and unknown.

Forgive every thought deed action, motive or intent of my heart that doesn't line up with your word, your will and your purpose for my life.

Please forgive secret thoughts and uproot any seed of discontent that has been planted in my life.

Forgive me Lord if I have held back the tithe and give me a heart to restore every person that I have wronged

Just as you forgive me, I forgive those who have wronged me and I let go of any bitterness or ill will that I have held in my heart.

I will not allow sin or bitterness to cut off the flow of blessings in my life and I repent right now in the name of Jesus and I receive the power of the blood to cleanse me of all iniquity.

I come before you Lord with a heart that is after your own and a mind that is stayed on You, I thank you, Lord, for saving me from myself and the consequences of sin .

I surrender, Lord, and give you total and complete rein over my life.

I willingly submit to you with thanksgiving and praise.

I thank you Lord for the relationship and fellowship that you have allowed me to share with you.

I thank you for every moment, prayer, word and opportunity to gain revelation and understanding concerning you.

Forgive me for the times I have taken you for granted or moments where I have allowed my focus and discipline to slip.

I choose you, Lord, and all of your benefits and renounce all ties and fellowship with the world.

I have no place in the world and renounce everything that it offers.

You have given me a choice Lord, and I choose to be in covenant with you

I have crossed the line with no return and I will not look back.

Each day I am getting more and more like you and growing further and further from this world.

My reality in Christ is more real than what my natural eyes behold and I know that you are not a million miles away. You are right here with me every step of the way.

I will have confidence in you, Lord, concerning every situation I face, every decision I make and every temptation in my path.

Give me ears Lord, to hear your instruction, eyes that will not be deceived, and a heart that will remain faithful.

My life has been built on the foundation that you are the Christ, the Son of the living God. You died on the cross for my sins and your blood was shed for me.

I exercise total faith and belief and confidence that death was powerless to hold you in the grave and that you rose again and resurrected every dead thing.

I receive your resurrection power and declare there is no dead thing in my life.

I speak life in all things pertaining to me.

Even now Lord I pray that you would breath life into my relationships, my hopes, my dreams, my career my calling and purpose.

Let there be no cracks in my foundation and restore every bone that has been broken

I pray Lord, that dead branches be pruned from me and my heart would bear fruit.

I offer no resistance and pray that all ungodly distractions be pruned from me, whether they are people, unhealthy relationships, environments, dead situations, ungodly influences or anything that is not expedient for me.

I distance myself right now from every dead thing and release them from my life, in Jesus' name.

I thank you Lord that I have inherited life through your sacrifice, forgiveness from my sins through your blood, revelation through your Word and I have been empowered through your Spirit.

I take precious time, Lord, to fully grasp and consider what relationship with you means.

Help me to never lose sight of the fact that I have an adversary that must be fought each day.

My adversary is the world, and satan, who is the prince of this world.

The world around me is not my home and each day it becomes more a reflection of satan, it's prince.

I am not ignorant to satan's devices and understand that the world is designed for my destruction

The allurement of pleasure and the temptation that crosses my eyes are for the purpose of robbing me of everything I have inherited through Christ...

Every trap, every lust, and the pride that is in the world is set against me on every side.

The hope that I have is in patiently walking according to your Word and staying firm to the covenant that I have made with You.

The world cannot strip me of my authority but I can hand it over

I will not be deceived by what I see, hear or how I feel – if it is not of God then it is for my destruction.

Help me, Lord, to see the spirit behind the temptation.

The Word tells me that satan came to steal, kill and destroy, but Jesus comes so I might have life and have it more abundantly.

I rebuke and bind every influence that seeks to draw me away from You.

For it is nothing more than a gateway to hell, and will rob me of my eternal destiny.

Father, I know that you are able to do all things, and there is nothing that is impossible for you.

Right now, Lord, I remember my first love, and I am prepared today, to exercise faith in light of my circumstances... sacrifice my own wants and desires in order to embrace yours... stand on the Word of God even if it causes me to be peculiar... deny my flesh and feelings regardless of the temptation and not make decisions based on what I see or think.

I will forget about the past and press toward the mark.

I will walk as a prophet of God...put my head up, and if nobody is there to encourage me then I will encourage myself.

I will not be ashamed to follow the examples of Christ, even in the face of persecution, to think differently in the light of the negative labels and slander I may endure.

Nor will I be afraid to take a stand in the minority, even if it seems that the whole world is standing against me.

I am willing to abstain when others are eager to participate, to speak out when my words may cause me to be ostracized, and to believe the Bible even when it is the unpopular thing to do.

In other words, I am prepared to live like Jesus

I release my faith right now in the name of Jesus – whatever situation I am in, whatever I am dealing with, and regardless of what odds are against me, I will be steadfast and immovable.

I am in elite company and encompassed about by a great cloud of witnesses

The words of this prayer will comfort me, build up my spirit man and encourage me in the way,

In the name of Jesus and in the power of His blood, I rebuke, bind and cast down satan and his forces of darkness from any involvement, activity or distraction in this prayer.

I commission my angels to come against every thought, feeling, influence, and hindrance that is set against me.

I stand in the gap for my family and friends, and pursue the Lord with all of my heart.

Even as I hear the words of this prayer my body is regenerating itself.

My body is preparing itself for another productive day.

My body is developing, according to your plan and health is being released in all of my organs, tissue, bodily systems, veins, arteries and muscle.

My brain is processing the information consistent with your word and filtering out everything that is not of You.

My heart is being protected from all ungodly influences and my innocence is being guarded.

I have and will always have a sound mind that is saturated in your Word.

In the name of Jesus and in the power of His blood, I rebuke evil spirits from attaching to me in any way, shape or form.

They have no place, familiarity or invitation in my life. They cannot enter into my eyes, my ears my mind or my heart.

My spirit man has victory over them all the days of my life

In the name of Jesus and in the power of his blood, I rebuke, bind, cast down and break all generational curses.

I decree by the blood of the Lamb in the power given to me as joint heir with Jesus Christ that I will not be the victim of physical, mental or emotional abuse.

Nor will I have, serve or entertain idols or false gods.

In the name of Jesus and by the power of His blood, I decree that I am not a covenant breaker and my yea is yea and my nay is nay.

I pray Lord, that you will protect me from all hurt, harm, pain and danger, and those that mean me ill will.

In the name of Jesus and by the power of His blood, I have the patience of Job, the meekness of Moses, the heart of David, the favor of Joseph, the ear of Samuel, the courage of Joshua, the wisdom of Daniel, the zeal of Peter, the love of John, the faithfulness of Abraham and the boldness of Paul.

I abide in the fruits of the spirit all the days of my life and even now these fruits are growing in me.

Lord, help me to be a person of great faith, consistent in good deeds, and a constant encourager.

I will continue to love you with all of my heart, mind, body, soul and spirit, and to love my neighbor as myself.

In the name of Jesus and by the power of Your blood, I pray, Lord, that you are first in everything that I do and I have no priority greater than you all the days of my life.

I am eternally connected to You and have an expectation in heaven.

In the name of Jesus and by the power of His blood, I pray that my face be before the Lord always and that angels encamp around me and deliver me.

Order my steps in the Word and design my days according to Your will.

The Lord touches my mouth and puts His Word in it.

Lord I will go wherever you send me and speak whatever you give me to speak

I am not afraid of their faces because your sword protects me at all times.

Father, you are my sustainer, my comforter, my provider, my God, my strength, and most of all, my friend.

In the name of Jesus and by the power of His blood, I equip myself right now with the whole armor of God that I am covered from head to toe in every aspect of my life.

There should be no part of my life that is exposed on the inside or out, but all should be covered by the blood of Jesus.

In the name of Jesus and in the power of his blood, I put on the helmet of salvation.

I have been redeemed from all traces of poverty and I rebuke and bind the poverty spirit.

You supply all of my needs and I am blessed all the days of my life.

In the name of Jesus, I speak abundant harvest in my life; my bank accounts are overflowing and my barns are full. The blessings of the Lord overtake and pursue me all the days of my life.

I speak financial security and wholeness over my family in the perfect will of God in my life.

In the name of Jesus and by the power of his blood, I rebuke, bind and curse the spirit of death. I shall not see untimely death, nor shall death have any hold over me. I shall fulfill all my days, months, hours, years, minutes and seconds.

I have divine order over my life and death has no grip on me.

A thousand may fall by my side and ten thousand by my right hand, but it shall not come at me.

In the name of Jesus and by the power of his blood, my feet are shod in the gospel of peace.

Peace rests upon me and covers my mind and my heart. I have peace in the midst of storms, chaos and confusion. Your peace comforts me in times of trial and sustains me from being weary. It surpasses all understanding, rendering logic helpless, and my faith sustains me.

Father, you are an awesome God; you are not a million miles away but right here with me each and every day. You walk with me, talk with me, and guide me every step of the way. You love me and I rest in you, and I know that you are my God.

In the name of Jesus and in the power of His blood, I have been empowered with the sword of the spirit and I have authority over all power of satan.

I rejoice and celebrate that my name is written in the Lamb's book of life.

The sword of the Lord shall never depart from me and I speak boldness into my spirit.

I rebuke, bind and cast down the spirit of fear. You have not given me the spirit of fear but of power, love and a sound mind.

When I walk through the waters you are with me. When I go through the rivers you help me and when I pass through the fire the flame is not kindled upon me.

You have set your love upon me and you protect me all the days of my life.

The hedge of protection rests on me and Your fire shall be in my spirit

In the name of Jesus and by the power of His blood, the shield of faith is an extension of my arm. My faith shall not fail me and I trust in the Lord with all my heart, mind, soul, body, and spirit.

If you said it then I know that you will do it.

You shall not withhold any good thing from me and I know that you are able to perform Your Word in my life.

I fortify my faith by releasing the promises of God into my life. Every word you have spoken concerning my destiny shall be established and come to pass and my enemies shall not prevail against me.

In the name of Jesus I pray over my marriage. I pray that my marriage will continue to be everything that the Word of God called it to be. My marriage shall be built on faithfulness, trust, loyalty and a mutual love of God. You shall be the head of my house, at the center of everything that we do and the Word of God shall be the binding authority of everything that matters. I am God's ambassador in my house and I shall cover my spouse all the days of my life through my words, example, character and deeds. My marriage is blessed and washed in the blood and shall weather any challenges that rise against it. Our love continues to grow stronger each day as the Lord allows us to see more of Him in one another. If I am single I confess total contentment in myself, wholeness in my life, patience to wait on God and security in Christ.

I am a person of high self-esteem, of significant value to the kingdom. I will not compromise my covenant with God, nor will I allow fear to cause me to operate in the fleshly realm. I exercise complete and total control of my mind, my will and my emotions. And I do not leave any doors open for satan to sneak in.

I understand that not every relationship is for me, that every person does not have my best interest, all that glitters is not gold and every sugary thing is not sweet.

In the name of Jesus, I will not be distracted by counterfeits and wolves in sheep's clothing.

I will not lower my Biblical expectations, nor will I give in to the pressures of the world. I have total confidence in God and the plan that He has for my life.

In the name of Jesus I surrender my children to you, Lord, and trust you to supply me with the ability and wisdom to raise them in the fear of the Lord.

I make a commitment to my children to openly receive the instruction in your Word on how to raise them, love them and properly present them before you on that day. I pray that your calling and your purpose will be fulfilled in them and ask that you guide me and direct me in all matters concerning them. I shall be careful to represent you before them in everything that I say or do. I commit to live holy before them and set Godly examples for them to follow. I shall not be a hypocrite and I shall practice what I preach. I shall be a provider and a protector for them and make whatever sacrifices are necessary to ensure them a wonderful life. I shall fight to preserve their innocence and protect them from the brainwashing of the world. My expectation in them shall come to pass and the blessing set out in your Word shall be established in them. My children shall see you in everything that I say and do.

In the name of Jesus, I seal my soul to the words of this covenant, that it is the declaration of my heart, that every word be lined up with the perfect will of God and line by line with His understanding. Let the Lord Jesus Christ be the final arbitrator of my mind and heart and covenant be always pleasing in the sight of God. I thank you, Lord, that you love me and you hear me. I thank you Lord, for a mind to share intimate fellowship with you. I thank you that these words shall be established in my heart and mind, that they shall be a part of me and guide and direct my paths at all times. I thank You, Lord, for this opportunity and this second chance. I look forward to your return and I know that nothing I have done or sacrificed has been in vain. Thank you for this life, who I am in Christ and for all blessings that you have bestowed upon me.

Amen
