Need To Be Free ①

lately it been hard to not think of you; The moments of happiness and all that we've been through I think of times that you made me ^{laugh} ~~cry~~, then comes the tears of hurt from looking back

lately you've been renting space in my head Bring up emotions I long since thought were dead I don't get it - this hold you have on me why can't I let you go - I need to be free.
I wanna be free

Free to love again free to live, I need to be free to finally give this heart that's full of ~~love~~, to live the dreams I dream of
I need to be free
I need to be free

lately, it's been driving me half crazy mad thinking of what it was we used to have Tender love that set my soul ablaze
I still can't believe that I'm missing our yesterdays lately I've been wishing to turn back the hands of time But life is stuck on fast forward and not rewind I can't believe I'm looking back on the breaking of my heart

I try to stop the tears before they start
I wanna be free...

Free to love again free to live I need to be free to finally give this heart that's full of love, to live the Need to be free (cont.)

dreams I dream of
I need to be free
I need to be free

Hately through all this looking back I can see past the fears To my today and be satisfied with my future years And hately I've learned to appreciate what we went through But I'm so blessed he's not like you I am free

I am free to live my life free to love again I free to give every part of me ~~and~~ ^{to this} man I am free to live again and give him all my love and ~~together~~ we chase what we dream of
I am free...
I am free...

OOhhh, I am free
