

DEAR JANE DOE,

10-11-2011

HELLO THERE, I hope this letter reaches you in the best of health, I received your comments today, and I was glad to hear you haven't forgotten about me. I'm also glad to know your doing alright besides working yourself too much. As for myself, the closer I get the more anxious I get, it's been a minute since my last taste of freedom. I can't wait to find out all of what you have to tell me, maybe we can help each other with a good friendship, I'm here for you, when ever you need to talk about something, plus I would love to bend your ear for a minute, because what I've been through is enough to write a book. I'm just writing to let you know I got your comments and that I wish you well, take care of yourself & always remember I'm here if you need me for anything, and I'll still be there once I'm released the first week of January if everything goes on. I hope to hear from you soon, that would really make me smile, just like when I read what you left me today, Anytime I think of you I can't help but smile! I write again soon

Forever yours,

Rob
