

Conflicted Ways

10-27-11

IF I continue responding to the world in the old conflicted ways, I remain its victim, and my feelings of defeat and sorrow deepen with age. Old conflicted ways is the equivalent of having a cancerous tumor living amongst myself. If left untreated, it can cause death. But if I use the chemotherapy treatment of my mind and my self will to no longer respond to my conflicted ways, I cure myself mentally and enlighten myself spiritually. I am no longer a victim but a victor!

How do you correct your old conflicting ways?
