

my lifes been a Country song

it feels so right till it all goes south. my heart is wide open Can you Feel the Fire.

If you see me someday
Be as you are, are you
Just killing time
my heart is unchained Am I so strong enough to ride this train.

it would be you when the tail lights fade
down that Long Dirt Road
